Campus Crime Stoppers “Friends for Life” Program

Campus Crime Stoppers Friends for Life is a program offered by Crime Stoppers of Tarrant County. The Campus Crime Stoppers Friends for Life Program began as a partnership with the Fort Worth ISD “It’s Not Okay” campaign in Fall 2010, which encourages students to make healthy decisions and ask for help when they or their friends are in need. The tagline of this campaign is “It’s Okay to Help a Friend.” The program focuses on behaviors and issues that can place the student and others at risk and will serve as a resource for students who want to report fellow students who are victims.

2016 Success Stories

Two Tips Lead to an Arrest and ID of a New Drug in Forest Hill

In February 2016, Crime Stoppers of Tarrant County received a disposition from Forest Hill Police Department regarding two narcotics tips. The tips led to an arrest for two (2) counts of Possession of Controlled Substance and seven (7) counts of Possession of a Dangerous Drug. During the investigation, investigators discovered a new drug that was hitting the streets of Forest Hill called Acetyl Fentanyl, which mimics the effects of heroin, and along with the help of DEA and the DPS Narcotics Task Force, they discovered it was a banned drug from the U.S. At the time this disposition was received, the Forest Hill officer stated that “this was a big deal as this drug had not been seen in our area and is reported to be responsible for a large number of overdoses in Europe [...] it has been recently reported in the north eastern part of the U.S. but not anywhere near our area.” The arrested person had a criminal history and had been known to use local juveniles as drug dealers; he supplied them and provided vehicles for them to commit residential burglaries.
